ASEAN Business and Investment Summit 2024 8-11 October 2024, Landmark Hotel, Vientiane Capital, Lao PDR

(Draft 6.6 - 22 August 2024)

I. Background

The ASEAN Business and Investment Summit (ABIS) is an annual event that brings together world leaders, CEOs, and senior executives from multinational and regional corporations. Organized by the ASEAN Business Advisory Council (ASEAN-BAC), the summit serves as a strategic platform to amplify the private sector's voice in driving policy reforms and positioning ASEAN at the center of global economic interconnectedness.

In October 2024, Vientiane, Lao PDR, will host the ABIS, coinciding with its Chairmanship of ASEAN. The summit will reflect the Chairmanship's theme, "ASEAN: Enhancing Connectivity and Resilience", focusing on the priorities set by ASEAN and Lao PDR for the year.

Lao PDR's Chairmanship will continue to strengthen the ASEAN Economic Community and ASEAN Centrality under three strategic thrusts:

- (i) Enhancing economic integration by integrating and connecting economies, building stronger connections between ASEAN and its partners to foster resilience for economic growth and stability;
- (ii) Forging an inclusive and sustainable future, recognizing the importance of sustainable development, and connecting environmental and social objectives to build a more resilient ASEAN region; and
- (iii) Enhancing digital transformation for the future, propelling ASEAN to become a leading digital economy and creating new opportunities while building resilience to modern global challenges.

ASEAN-BAC Lao PDR will pursue these priorities with a strong emphasis on economic connectivity and resilience. Lao PDR's ASEAN BAC Chairmanship Priorities are:

- 1. Digital Transformation: Digital Transformation can boost ASEAN growth, empower MSMEs, and encourages responsible ethical tech use;
- 2. Sustainable Development: Equitable access to clean energy, financial incentives, and renewables are key for Net Zero in Southeast Asia;
- 3. Health Care Resilience: Prioritize on One ASEAN Healthcare Market, VTD R&D Manufacturing and de-risking private sector investment in healthcare;
- 4. Food Security: Strengthen food security, promote sustainable production, enhance information systems, and identify nutrition-enhancing agricultural mechanisms for sustainable ASEAN food system;
- 5. Trade and Investment Facilitation: Address intra-regional trade disparity by reducing Non-Tariff Barriers, balancing trade with partners, and exploring Free Trade Agreement upgrades; and
- 6. Connectivity and Supply Chain: Crucial role of connectivity in supporting an integrated ASEAN community building process and transforming from a land-locked to a land-linked country and connectivity hub.

II. Program Ideas

III. Expected Outcomes and Conclusion:

The ABIS 2024 is expected to result in:

- Strengthened economic ties and increased intra-ASEAN trade and investment.
- Enhanced public-private partnerships to address regional economic challenges.
- Actionable insights for sustainable development and digital transformation within ASEAN.
- Greater emphasis on the role of MSMEs, green economy, women and youth, and technological innovation in driving inclusive growth.
- Commitments to bolster food security, health resilience, and safeguard against health threats in ASEAN.

The summit will culminate in a declaration that encapsulates the collective aspirations and commitments of ASEAN businesses and leaders to drive forward the region's economic agenda under the theme of "Enhancing Connectivity and Resilience."

Conclusion: The ASEAN Business and Investment Summit 2024 in Vientiane, Lao PDR, presents a unique opportunity for the private sector to engage with policymakers and shape the future of ASEAN's economic landscape. By focusing on the priorities set by the Lao PDR Chairmanship and building upon the successes of previous summits, ABIS 2024 aims to strengthen ASEAN's economic integration, promote sustainable development, and foster an inclusive and resilient community.

Through a comprehensive program of sessions, panel discussions, and side events, the summit will facilitate meaningful dialogues and collaborations between businesses, governments, and other stakeholders. The expected outcomes of ABIS 2024 will contribute to the realization of the ASEAN Economic Community's goals and reinforce ASEAN's position as a key driver of global economic growth and stability.

As the preparations for ABIS 2024 move forward, Lao PDR will continue to work closely with its partners, sponsors, and member states to ensure the summit's success and deliver lasting value to the ASEAN community. By harnessing the collective strengths and aspirations of its diverse stakeholders, ABIS 2024 will serve as a catalyst for inclusive, sustainable, and resilient economic growth in ASEAN and beyond.
